DINING TABLE BIANCA

The Bianca dining table brings a total of 114” in top length, providing ample space to accommodate a total of 8 wide chairs comfortably.

Modeled after estate pieces that are no longer widely available if today’s market, this well-crafted table has generous turned legs, curved connector ties in between legs and a rope-like hand carved edge around its top

Finished in a crème distressed tone with undertones of natural wood, this table will not disappoint the more rigorous purists of century-old reproductions.
